Panerai's origins can be traced back to 1860, when Giovanni Panerai founded a workshop in Florence, Italy. Initially, the shop specialized on manufacturing precision instruments, including compasses. However, it was their relationship with the Italian Royal Navy in the early 20th century that truly launched Panerai into the public eye. The Navy demanded extremely trustworthy instruments for underwater operations, and Panerai delivered with the Radiomir, a revolutionary watch boasting a phosphorescent compound that allowed for clear readability in dark conditions.

The acquisition of Panerai by the Richemont Group in 1997 signaled a new era in the brand's history. With the backing of a major luxury conglomerate, Panerai was able to expand its production, release new variations, and access a broader audience. While maintaining its essential design language, Panerai has also innovated with different materials, complications, and sizes, offering a varied range of watches to suit a variety of tastes and preferences.
